

GHR Foundation applies entrepreneurial creativity and universal catholic values to foster hope and opportunity where it is needed most.

Started in 1965 by The Opus Group® founders Gerald and Henrietta Rauenhorst, the Foundation seeks transformational change in health, education and global development. We partner with the world's experts and local leadership, resulting in a powerful exchange of ideas and scalable solutions.

GHR is anchored by a belief in responsibility, action and the knowledge that we are all deeply connected. Despite global challenges, we meet each task with entrepreneurial optimism because we have seen the impact of strategic, thoughtful change.

We are driven to create sustainable impact. We are tenacious in seeking the source of the issue and are innovative in our approach. We support a learning culture: both nimble and adaptive. We recognize passion for impact is a resource for good.

Our Programs

Health

GHR Foundation’s health focus centers on turning the tide on Alzheimer’s disease. Impacting more than 5 million families across the U.S., Alzheimer’s disease has the highest cost impact on our economy of any disease. GHR funds research to uncover successful prevention therapies.

Education

GHR Foundation invests in innovative, values-focused education to strengthen urban Catholic schools and private universities. Through its work in urban Catholic schools, GHR is working to bridge the achievement gap by increasing access and supporting academic excellence.

Global Development

GHR Foundation takes an integrated approach to tackling complex challenges through initiatives that empower Catholic sisters, strengthen inter-religious approaches and promote children being raised in supportive family environments. GHR funds projects that pair local insights with global best practices to create sustainable development solutions.

Our Approach

We seek and promote possibility because we have seen the impact of strategic, thoughtful change. We prioritize approaches that are:

Entrepreneurial

Partnering

Scalable

Localized

Faith-based
