

GHR Foundation is an independent philanthropy of service to people and their limitless potential for good.

Alongside our partners around the world, we reimagine what's possible when pursuing impact on issues related to Children in Families, Education, Alzheimer's Disease and more.

For more than 50 years, the pioneering design-build legacy of Opus Group founders Gerald and Henrietta Rauenhorst (GHR) has guided our optimistic and transformational philanthropic approach.

In 2018, GHR awarded more than $25.1 million in grants

Our Programs

Change-making approaches to persistent development challenges.

Change-making approaches to persistent development challenges.

Education

Bridging gaps and building strong educational communities.

Alzheimer's Prevention

Groundbreaking research to treat and prevent Alzheimer's disease.

Our Purpose and Values

To achieve GHR's purpose, we are guided by shared values, a well-stewarded strategy and responsible governance. In this way, our external impact extends beyond programmatic funding to influential leadership within philanthropy and across the social sector. Internally, we nurture an inclusive organizational culture centered around curiosity, courage, and trust that values both the individual and team.
